FEEL THE HISTORY

In 1812, Orrin Granger, a pioneer from Granville, Massachusetts, built "The Tavern" on land that was purchased in 1806. That tavern, now known as "The Buxton Inn", has been operated continuously since that date in 312. The architectural style was long and narrow – typical of early American times. The building had a ballroom, a stagecoach court, a dining room...all the fixings demanded by society in 1812.
